It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Bundoran – Ireland’s Premier Seaside Resort and a family friendly destination for over 300 years. Whether it’s your first time here or you are on a return visit, thank you for choosing us!

While you’re here, you’ll find so much to do from outdoor activities to live music to the best in food and drink. Whether you’re travelling with your family, you’re a couple or just on your own and looking for a fun or relaxing few days away, Bundoran is sure to tick all the boxes with its top class facilities and world class amenities!

Bundoran is proud to be the first Donegal stop on the Wild Atlantic Way’s Surf Coast – a route known for its spectacular scenery all along the entire western seaboard with south Donegal being no exception. Stand at the Tullan Strand Discovery Point and take in Donegal Bay with views of Slieve League, Mullaghmore, Benbulben and the picturesque Dartry Mountains – and don’t forget while you’re there to check out the Fairy Bridges and Wishing Chair – Bundoran’s original tourist attraction from the 1700s.

As fitness becomes a priority with more and more people, why not use the natural and free amenities offered by Bundoran and its surrounds – whether it’s surfing waves, running or cycling routes or just a nice stroll to experience some breathtaking views, you’ll find it all, right on our doorstep.

We’ve got another super lineup of events and activities in 2018 including our staple events like Easter Egg Painting, Pumpkin Carving, Classic Car Show, Street Party, country music festivals and this year Bundoran is proud to host our first Darkness Into Light event on Saturday May 12th. Keep right up to date on www.discoverbundoran.com/events.

Some come to surf, some come to play, some come for music, some come to stay and sometimes you just never know who you might bump into!! Whatever reason you’ve come for, we’re glad you’re here in Ireland’s Premiere Seaside Resort!

For further detailed information on attractions contained in this brochure please visit our website or drop into the Tourist Office at the Bridge. We are also pretty active on social media – just search “Discover Bundoran”.

Enjoy your stay!

Music is a major part of the heritage of the town with the dancehall tradition continuing to this day with Ireland’s top country music singers performing each weekend. Numerous country music festivals take place in all of the major venues in town right throughout the year.

Through the summer season you’ll find music nightly in pubs from one end of Bundoran to the other – from country to traditional to rock – from the Chasin Bull to the Kicking Donkey, The Railway, 51 Main Street, The Phoenix, Oyster Bar and The Marine! For the more adventurous musicians, there’s also the opportunity to show off your talents with the many “open mic nights” – bring your guitar or your voice! For up and coming bands why not try the Chasin Bull’s Live & Unsigned for your chance to play this year’s Sea Sessions!

For the traditional fan there’s the chance to jump in on one of the weekly trad sessions at Madden’s Bridge Bar or Georges Bar – join in or sit back and take in one of Ireland’s oldest forms of music and song. www.maddensbridgebar.com

The Sea Sessions Surf Music Festival every June attracts not only thousands of festival goers to town but also the cream of international mainstream and indie music acts – recent performers have included Seasick Steve, Gavin James, Tinie Tempah, Maverick Sabre, Bastille, The Strypes, Happy Mondays and the Kaiser Chiefs. www.seasessions.com

Bundoran has recently become known as the Northwest’s Capital of Country! Whether it’s at the intimate Bird’s Nest Bar or The Allingham Arms, with Jimmy Buckley, Robert Mizzell, Derek Ryan or any one of Ireland’s established or up and coming country artists, they are sure to be landing in town on any given weekend to perform on a Saturday night or as part of the many country music festivals held here during the year! www.allinghamarmshotel.ie

For the young or the young at heart, nightclubs in town are open each weekend playing the latest chart hits and the biggest dancefloor classics with Ireland’s top live bands often making an appearance too!

Bundoran Golf is beautifully positioned, offering stunning views of the North Atlantic Coastline!

Bundoran Golf, founded in 1894, is one of the oldest golf clubs in Ireland, a clifftop links on a headland overlooking Donegal Bay on the Wild Atlantic Way. Our golfer friendly course, situated in the town, with panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean and a backdrop of the magnificent Dartry Mountains presents a challenge to all golfers.

Surrounding the Course you may see suffers enjoying the rolling Atlantic waves, walkers on the famous cliff edge Roguey Walk or marine visitors such as dolphins and seals.

Designed by Harry Vardon, our golf course is a testing 18 hole, par 70, two loops of nine ending at the Clubhouse. His design philosophy was “to give pleasure to golfers of all degrees”, so we are sure you will enjoy your golfing experience and the warm welcome you will receive in Bundoran Golf. Our Club is one of the joint hosts of the West Coast Challenge. Facilities include a practice area, putting green, bar, restaurant and Pro Shop.

With twenty five 18 hole and 9 hole Courses from which to choose, at Bundoran you are never more than a short drive from a Championship Course. The magnificent and spectacular Atlantic Way coastline provides the perfect landscape and backdrop for these golf courses which have attracted wonderful course designers such as old Tom Morris, Braid, Vardon, Colt and Allison who left their early footprints. They were followed in due course by Hackett, Merrigan, Steele, Craddock, Ruddy and Darren Clarke.

Donegal Bay provides the ideal jumping off point to explore and take on the challenge of these Courses. Co. Donegal has the largest number of links in Ireland and no matter where you go in the County you will not be far away from the best Ireland has to offer. Visit our website: bundorangolfclub.com

Bond with your team!
What better way to bond with your fellow work mates orsports team than by coming away for a few days together totrain or prepare for that important match or game. Indoorfacilities for football, basketball and volleyball are availableat Magh Ene College with outdoor options also on hand withtheir football pitch and basketball court. These facilities areavailable to rent from 5-10pm on weekdays and by requeston weekends – see www.maghenecollege.ie for moredetails. Showers and changing rooms are available on site.

Meanwhile also nearby is the Bundoran GAA pitch whichregularly hosts visiting teams and facilitates as a “neutral”ground for important gaelic games ties.

In nearby Ballyshannon, the Lakeside Centre caters forteams who wish to avail of Astro Turf facilities.
If you’d rather leave it to just the kids, all 4 surf schools run kids camps during the holidays and the DAC offers a fully supervised residential Surf camp.

One of the things that sets Bundoran apart is its wide array of options for all surfers whether at Tullan Strand, Main Beach, The Peak or nearby Rossnowlagh or Streedagh.

Beginners & improvers - We would strongly advise all beginners or those who’ve been surfing only a handful of times to take a lesson with one of the four excellent surf schools based in Bundoran. The schools are all approved by the Irish Surfing Association and just like a beginner skier would never start out on a black run, this way you have an experienced coach and lifeguard to make sure that you have a safe and fun experience at the right beach for the conditions.

Intermediate - Whether you just plan to rent equipment or you have your own boards - all the surf schools will be happy to help you out. All 4 rent boards and wetsuits but will also be happy to just dispense some advice. Tullan Strand is an excellent beach for those who’ve progressed beyond lessons. Famous for being considered Ireland’s most consistent beach break with waves right along the stretch of golden sand with a wave for almost every level of surf.

Advanced - The Peak and other reef breaks. It’s no coincidence that Bundoran has hosted many Irish and International tournaments. Its world class waves and friendly people make it a perfect hosting venue. Most of the world’s best surfers, including Kelly Slater and Mick Fanning have visited Bundoran to catch waves on the Peak. These breaks are for very experienced surfers only.

Tow-In and Big Wave Surfing - Waves at nearby Mullaghmore have made national and international headlines in recent years - this type of surfing only for the trained professionals - it’s fun to watch though!

Bundoran is a proud partner of Surfing Europe – an Atlantic Coast surfing trail with partners in the UK, France, Spain and Portugal.

People have been taking advantage of Bundoran’s wonderful landscape and blue flag beach for years.

Fishing trips - Whether you are interested in Sea Angling, River Angling or Coarse Fishing, Donegal Bay has somewhere in the region of 30 different species of fish and it’s not unusual for a day’s fishing to produce at least 5 or more species. The Bundoran Star runs charter trips for anglers or for those who prefer just to watch. www.bundoranstar.ie

For further information on angling in the Bundoran area, see page 30.

Cycling - From Bundoran, you can be cycling along beautiful cliff top coastal roads around Mullaghmore, an hour later be cruising around the famous Gleniff Horseshoe and another hour later be circling Lough Gill in Sligo through leafy forests. If you don’t have a bike with you - The Bike Stop on Main Street 085 2488317 have a range of bikes and helmets for all.

Walking & Hiking - The two main walks in Bundoran are the Roguey Walk Experience and the West End Cliff Walk. The Roguey Walk heads east along Main Beach and then up over the Roguey cliffs to Tullan Strand (don’t forget to check out the Fairy Bridges and Wishing Chair while you’re there). Then you can loop around back through the east end of town. For the West End Cliff Walk, head west from the Tourist Office, past the world famous Peak surf break and just after the Lifeboat station, you’ll see a sign for the cliff walk which will guide you along the cliffs at the west end of town.

Both Turf’nSurf and Donegal Adventure Centre run regular walks for groups but for those who like to plan their own routes, there are ample opportunities for hiking in the Dartry and Bluestack mountains that encompass the area.

Sea Swimming - Two outdoor Atlantic sea water swimming pools are available to those so inclined - one at West End and the Thrupenny Pool just below Waterworld, while Main Beach offers lifeguarded conditions during summer months - just remember to obey the flags and seek advice if you are unsure.
Bundoran’s food scene is thriving, and is proud to be home to two award-winning food businesses. HardyBaker will be included in the McKenna’s 100 Best Restaurants in Ireland list 2018, and Frizzell’s Craft Butchers are recent winners of the Association of Craft Butchers of Ireland “Best Rural/Small Town Butcher Shop” and overall ACBI 2017/2018 Star Shop Winner.

Good mainstream food reflects the demand for a more relaxed dining experience which is evident with the wide variety of cuisines from which to choose – Indian, Chinese, Italian, pizzas, seafood and of course your European menu and some of the finest steaks you’ll eat anywhere with locally sourced beef. Several eateries are family friendly thus helping to make Bundoran a more welcoming town.

Where possible, chefs across town like to support local suppliers with none more local than Bundoran Community Garden in the West End which produces top quality organic produce overlooking Donegal Bay.

In-house homemade treats are a speciality in several cafes across town - freshly baked scones and breads each morning topped with delicious homemade jams and all proudly supporting artisan and local food suppliers using natural and local ingredients.

Whether it’s a romantic meal for 2, a family meal or special occasion for 5 - 500 people, Bundoran caters for all types of functions - wedding parties, hen/stag parties, conferences, clubs and societies can all avail of the multitude of dining facilities spread right across town.

You can wash your meal down with a fine wine or maybe even a craft beer with one of the newest additions to the market, Donegal Blonde brewed just four miles away in Ballyshannon.

If you prefer to cook at home a wide variety of fresh produce is available from local supermarkets and providers.

We hope your gastronomic experience in Bundoran is a memorable one!

If it’s land based skills, outdoor activities or water based, Bundoran has become a centre for learning in recent years.

Lifeguarding - Several times a year, candidates descend on the town to complete their beach and pool lifeguard training courses delivered via the RLSS and in nearby Ballyshannon via Irish Water Safety. You can be pretty positive that any number of lifeguards looking after you on beaches nationwide have been trained right here in Bundoran! donegaladventurecentre.net, iws.ie, turfnsurf.ie and waterworldbundoran.com

Water Safety - Every July, national Water Safety week comes to the West End outdoor pool where children and adults can learn essential water safety and lifesaving skills. Couple this with Irish Water Safety classes held in the winter months in nearby Ballyshannon Leisure Centre from Jan to March and Sept to Dec and you’ll be covered in the water! iws.ie

Surfing - There’s no better place to come than the surf capital of Ireland to learn to surf. With 5 surf schools operating year round and seasonal, there’s no excuse not to stand on a surfboard at least once in your life! [See Page 18].

Outdoor Instructor - If becoming an instructor of these and other exciting outdoor activities is something that appeals to you, then look no further than the DAC or TurfnSurf where both long-term and short-term outdoor instructor courses are available year round. With surf available on the doorstep and hills, mountains and lakes in close proximity, the options for outdoor activities are endless! donegaladventurecentre.net / turfnsurf.ie

Dancing - Dancers are catered for as well with a number of set dancing weekends happening throughout the year.

Gaelic Football - GAA Cul Camps happen each summer at Bundoran GAA pitch – maybe your little one could become the next county star!
Bundoran’s repute as Ireland’s Premiere Seaside Resort holds its roots in the 18th century when Viscount of Enniskillen, William Cole built Bundoran Lodge when he fell in love with the fresh sea air and picturesque views this small inlet of the Atlantic had to offer. Since then the town has continued to grow in popularity with visitors from all walks and all corners of the globe who have travelled and continue to travel to Bundoran to bathe, walk, dance, fish, surf, relax and everything in between, keeping the town’s status as Ireland’s premiere seaside resort very much alive.

Bundoran, or as it is known in Irish “Bun Dobhrain” which means “the foot of the little water” was actually, up until over a century ago, two separate villages. Bundoran was the village west of the bridge over the River Bradog, this area is now known as the West End. East of the bridge almost a mile away, was the village of Single Street. In between these two separate communities lay the historic town land of Drumacrin.

The area of Drumacrin is now part of what is today’s town centre. It was only after the opening of the railway station in 1866 which was called Bundoran that the two distinct communities developed and merged to what we know nowadays to be Bundoran. Single Street was where the majority of the local native population lived. Across the bridge in what is now the West End, was the area of residence favoured by the more affluent classes.

Bundoran as a destination remained popular throughout the 20th century. Day excursions to the town by bus or train were hugely popular. One advertisement from the Great Northern Railway in 1940 read: “Have your annual excursion to Bundoran this year - and you will want to visit again and again! At Bundoran you will realise what the true amenities of the seaside really are.”

In more modern times Bundoran’s appeal as a family resort has been further enhanced by developments in recent years of the Waterworld Complex and building of new hotels, self-catering apartments and houses. Following this period of renaissance the town now boasts the largest accommodation base in the north west of Ireland and a host of activities, entertainment and attractions for all the family all year round.

The first mention of Bundoran was in 1777 when Viscount Enniskillen built his summer residence - Bundoran Lodge.
Discover Bundoran’s
Historical Trail

1. Boat Quay, West End -
   Bundoran Pier was built around 1880. The pier was a relief work under The Poor Law Act. This is now the local boat quay and home to the Bundoran RNLI Lifeboat.

2. Bayview Terrace, West End -
   This row of nine two bay three storey Victorian houses was built around 1890. It was built by the Kane family, Bundoran. No. 2 was the old post office in the past.

3. Homefield House, Bayview Avenue -
   This is the oldest prominent building in Bundoran. It was built in 1777 by the Viscount Enniskillen. It was burned and extensively damaged during the 1798 rebellion.

4. Catholic Church, Church Road -
   The Church of the Immaculate Conception was built in 1859. Reverend Francis Keelaghan was the driving force behind the construction. In 2009 the Church was refurbished by Canon Ramon Munster and is now called Church of Our Lady Star of the Sea, Bundoran.

5. St Louis Convent, Station Road -
   In 1870 the Sisters of St. Louis came to teach in Bundoran’s West End but left in 1885. They returned again in 1890 when Canon McKenna bought the grounds for the St. Louis Convent and schools on Station Road which opened in 1892. The lands were bought from a man named Scott and Mr. Harvey from Enniskillen was the contractor.

Welcome to The Bundoran Historical Walking Trail, which gives both locals & tourists a glimpse into the history of Bundoran, as they enjoy a pleasant and leisurely stroll around the town.

6. Great Northern Railway, Station Road -
   The Great Northern Railway came to Bundoran in 1866 and was a major factor in the development of the town as a resort. The station closed in 1957 with the last train pulling away on 30th September that year. The present Library stands on the site of the old Railway.

7. Old Methodist Church, Main Street -
   Campbell’s Memorial Methodist Church was built by Thomas Elliott in 1888. It is a detached five bay single storey former Methodist church with an entrance porch to the east. In 1980 it was converted into a coffee shop with a glazed porch facing onto the street.

8. Brennan’s Bar, Main Street -
   This quaint watching-hole was opened on St. Patrick’s Day, 1900 by the current owner’s grandfather. The business has stayed within the family since. Its original name Brennans Criterion Bar means that “It is the standard by which all other houses are judged”.

9. Church of Ireland, The Bridge -
   The Church of Ireland building is located beside the bridge. It is called Christ Church of Finner parish. It was built between 1839 and 1840 and designed by William Hagerty, a prominent architect in his day.

10. Right Of Way, Promenade Road -
    In 1868, James Hamilton, a local landlord began to build a wall along the street in order to exclude the public from gaining access to the seashore. It was his intention that tourists would pay for access to the beach. However, led by Canon Keelaghan, the people of Bundoran opposed this action and issued legal proceedings against Hamilton. On the 8th of February 1870, Judge Flanagan of the Landed Estates Court granted that the “Right of Way” would be granted in perpetuity to the townspeople.

Discover Bundoran’s Fairy Bridges and Wishing Chair

Coming from South to North, Bundoran’s Tullan Strand is proud to be the first Discovery Point you will meet in County Donegal on the Wild Atlantic Way and what a place to start! With scenic views for 360 degrees you can see back into Mullaghmore, County Sligo and across Donegal Bay to the magical Slieve League Cliffs.

As you begin the Roguey Walk Experience, you will arrive at the stunning Fairy Bridges – sea stacks hundreds of years old and Bundoran’s original tourist attraction back in the 1800s. However, it is believed that as far back as the 1700s locals thought these to be haunted by the fairies with the result of the name “The Fairy Bridges”.

While you’re there, take a seat on Bundoran’s own Wishing Chair. It is said that many of the town’s famous visitors over the years have sat here overlooking the wild Atlantic Ocean - from poet William Allingham to golfer Christy O’Connor to Viscount Enniskillen to 10 times world champion surfer Kelly Slater – they’re all believed to have sat in Bundoran’s famous Wishing Chair located at the Fairy Bridges at Tullan Strand.

Wishing Chair Ritual

Legend says it is advised to approach the chair with caution lest the powers of the chair be disrupted. Wishers are advised to sit down slowly holding on to both “arms” of the chair and then pause for at least 15 seconds to take in the stunning scenery that surrounds them – Donegal Bay to their left, Tullan Strand straight ahead and the Dartry Mountains to the right. It is useful to contemplate the figures, possible heroes and heroines who may have sat in the chair in times past, before making their wish which must be done in silence and kept private to the wisher in order to increase the chances of it coming true. Finally it is believed that tapping the seat twice as you get up will give your final commitment that your wish is a genuine one.

Discover Bundoran...

...the Angling Capital of Ireland!

Whether you are a total beginner or a world class professional angler, Bundoran is the perfect base for your angling holiday.

In the town itself we are lucky enough to have some of the best shore angling marks in the country. Tullan strand and the town’s main beach both offer first class fishing for Flounder, Turbot, Seatrout and Ray to name just a few species, with rock marks at Rougey and the town’s West End providing plenty of action with Pollock, Wrasse, Conger and Cod and much more.

Being on the wild Atlantic coast the boat angling is as good as anywhere in the world, literally anything is possible! During the 2015 fishing season over 40 species of fish were landed by the local charter boats. During the summer months the rich Atlantic waters are teeming with feed which creates a very diverse fish population. Everyone can be catered for here, whether you would just like an evening Mackerel and Pollock fishing trip or to go for a fish of a lifetime such as Shark, Skate or even a giant Bluefin Tuna, Bundoran has it to offer.

For the game angler there is nowhere better. 3 miles south of Bundoran we have the fantastic Lough Melvin which offers world class fly-fishing for wild brown Trout and Salmon. Lough Melvin is famous all over the world for its unique species of trout which are the beautiful gold bellied Gillaroo and the hard fighting black Sonaghan. Running from Melvin around Bundoran and entering the sea on the Donegal /Leitrim border at the towns West End is the river Drowes.

The river Drowes is a well-known river for its prolific run of wild Atlantic salmon. Nearly every year the first Salmon in Ireland is caught on this small and beautiful water. Another 4 miles west of the town is the Bunduff River. This river also has a great run of Salmon and offers great sport in July, August and September. Just Northeast of Bundoran at the end of a refreshing walk across the fantastic Tullan strand you will find the famous Erne Estuary. This is without doubt one of the finest if not the finest Seatrout fishery in Ireland. Finally, within 5 miles of the town we have numerous lakes for Pike and coarse angling.

Nowhere else in Ireland can offer so many angling opportunities of such quality as Bundoran.

For information on licences/permits, tackle and angling guide service contact Carty’s Land and Sea Sports in the towns West end at 0035371 9829698 or by email on info@landandseasports.ie
Discover Bundoran...

Part of Bundoran’s seaside heritage mentioned on page 29 is visible in the trinket and souvenir shops on Bundoran’s Main Street. Amidst the sticks of rock and china mementos you will also find the rare and exotic, so enjoy your search.

For the surfer, Bundoran Surf Co and Surfworld will kit the beginner or professional surfer out with a wide range of surfboards, wetsuits, leashes, board bags, wax, board keys and other accessories. Of course if it’s just the surfer “look” you’re after, both stores will cater for your hoodies, jackets, t-shirts and swimwear.

Two top class pharmacies in town will not only cater for your medical and prescription needs but also for your perfumes, aftershaves, makeup, gift and photographic needs. Cara Pharmacy and Pillbox Pharmacy’s helpful staff will ensure you are looked after. Cara’s Photographic and Baby Centre will not only let you print your holiday snaps but you can also put your favourite image onto a mug, a mousemat, a canvas and even your phonecover! For the parents you’ll also find Mamas & Papas Nursery Interior and Accessory collections, Travel Systems, Strollers, Car Seats, High Chairs, Cots, Clothing and lots more. Gift options are also available at Pillbox.

Could you really leave Bundoran without a souvenir postcard or famous stick of Bundoran Rock? American House, News & Views, Paraphernalia and The Irish Gift Shop will be happy to provide you with a memory of Bundoran! Meanwhile if you want to party it up let Fundoran Party World brighten up your party or event!

For the fishing fraternity Carty’s Land And Sea Sports at West End stock a massive range of fishing accessories and can also help you out with licences and offer advice on nearby opportunities. See page 35 for more.

If you need a new mobile phone or mobile broadband to complete your stay as well as advice on dialling home drop into Alpha Communications at East End who will help you stay connected.

Whether it’s a surfboard or a souvenir, a trinket or technology, Bundoran will cater for your shopping indulgence...

Discover Bundoran...

...for lots of Local Attractions!

Setting up base in Bundoran puts you in a perfect position to access spectacular attractions in Donegal, Leitrim and Sligo.

Straight across Donegal Bay is Slieve League – the highest accessible sea cliffs in Europe and one of the most popular visitor attractions in the county and now part of the Wild Atlantic Way. Although less famous than the Cliffs of Moher in County Clare, Slieve League’s cliffs reach almost three times higher!! “One Man’s Pass” is a popular walk on this mountain.

A trip to Donegal Town isn’t complete without taking in two of its top attractions – Donegal Castle and the Donegal Bay Waterbus! Cruise around Donegal Bay in the state of the art 160 seater Waterbus.

Donegal Castle, is nestled right in the heart of Donegal Town. It was built by the O’Donnell chieftains in the 15th Century, beside the river Eske and then rebuilt in Jacobean style in the 16th Century by Sir Basil Brooke. Guided tours are available.

For a day trip from Bundoran why not pack the picnic basket and head south to the Gleniff Horseshoe in County Sligo. The horseshoe is a 9km drive around a valley ringed by Tievebaun, Truskmore, The Hills of AnnaCoona and Benwiskin mountains. Whether you drive it or walk it, it’s one not to miss.

Just a short drive across the border from Bundoran is Belleek Pottery, one of Northern Ireland’s most popular visitor attractions.

Ireland’s second largest national park, Glenveagh, is a mere 90 minutes drive from Bundoran. The park covers 170 square km of hillside above Glenveagh Castle on the shore of Lough Veagh.

Abbey Assaroe is just outside Ballyshannon. The restored mill is also home to a craft shop and a museum of the Cistercian Monks in Medieval Ireland. Visitors can also check out the nearby Catsby Cave and take a stroll along the river across the oldest bridge in Ireland to see St Patricks Well.

Reopened in 2014, nearby Lissadell House in County Sligo is a must for any fans of Irish literature, history, politics and gardens – the ancestral home of Countess Markievicz and a regular haunt of poet William Butler Yeats. Daily tours are offered during their tourist season – more at www.lissadellhouse.com
