BUNDORAN

Promoting good food & drink

It is my great pleasure as Bundoran Tourism Officer to welcome you to Bia Bundoran - our newest food festival in conjunction with the food providers of Bundoran and Failte Ireland's "Taste the Island" initiative. Over the past number of years a huge importance has been placed on food tourism and with this weekend we are celebrating and showcasing the wide range of food available in Bundoran and surrounds. We are grateful to those who have organised events or created special offers especially for this weekend and hope that you enjoy the culinary delights that await you here!
