I wish the organisers of the inaugural
Douzelage Festival of Europe
every success with their events across Bundoran from October 14th - 16th

As the only Irish MEP part of the Culture & Education Committee in the European Parliament, I welcome these initiatives that promote both Irish and European music.

Paddy's Bangers

Paddy's Bangers is a group of five young musicians from Sušice, Czech Republic, playing mainly Irish & Czech folk music.

Smetnaki

Smetnaki are a vocal instrumental collective of six schooled and relatively up to your interpretation educated musicians from Škofja Loka, Slovenia.

Ingo & William

Ingo and William from Meerssen, Netherlands - expect the type of gypsy jazz, as was played by legends like Django Reinhardt in the night clubs of Paris in the interbellum period.

Ben Reidy

Ben is a solo acoustic guitar playing singer from Sherborne in the UK. His debut album "Be Safe, Goodbye" was released in July of 2022.

Eero Turkka

Eero Turkka from Finland is a folk musician best known from Sväng harmonica quartet, which has been touring around the world since 2003.

Cincár

The duo of Hungarian musicians, Bence Babcsán and Attila Buzás. They both played folk music from the Carpathian Basin and the Balkans, and are strongly influenced by a wide range of genres like jazz, classical or oriental.

Meitheal

Featuring some of the finest performers of traditional music from South Donegal, North Leitrim, and West Fermanagh. Their first album 'Songs of Erne Volume 1' was released in 2017.
